

SunTrust Foundation Donates $220,000 to Aid Local Florida Organizations in Hurricane Irma Recovery

Oct. 10, 2017

ATLANTA – The SunTrust Foundation announced today it has committed $220,000 in support of Hurricane Irma disaster relief efforts, with grants directed to nonprofit organizations in Florida who continue to assist individuals and businesses recovering from the storm’s aftermath. Previously, the SunTrust Foundation donated $250,000 to the American Red Cross to aid first-responders in immediate Hurricane Irma relief efforts.

“The SunTrust Foundation is proud to assist these 12 organizations who are working diligently throughout Florida to help people and businesses rebuild after the impact of Hurricane Irma,” said David Fuller, president of the SunTrust Foundation. “We remain committed to our Florida communities and hope these grants provide assistance to those who need it most.”

The $220,000 will be dispersed among the following organizations:

- Prospera, statewide in Florida
- Second Harvest Food Bank, Central Florida
- Space Coast SCORE, Brevard County
- United Way of Brevard Hurricane Relief Fund, Brevard County
- North Central Florida SCORE, Volusia & Flagler Counties
- United Way of Volusia & Flagler Hurricane IRMA Disaster Relief Fund, Volusia & Flagler Counties
- United Way of Lake & Sumter Counties Hurricane Relief Fund, Lake & Sumter Counties
- United Way of Lee County, Fort Myers, Lee County
