How We Will Calculate Your Balance: We use a method called "Average Daily Balance (Including New Transactions)."

Loss of Introductory or Promotional APR: We may end your Introductory or Promotional APR and apply the Purchase APR or Balance Transfer APR if you make a late payment.

Billing Rights: Information on your rights to dispute transactions and how to exercise those rights is provided in your Card Account Agreement.

Prime Rate: We use the Prime Rate quoted in the "Money Rates" section of The Wall Street Journal on the 28th day (or if the 28th day is not a business day, the next business day thereafter) of the prior calendar month.

Balance Transfers: You authorize SunTrust Bank (referred to as "us," "our" or "we") to make one or more of the Balance Transfers that you have requested. All Balance Transfer requests are subject to our approval. We are not liable if we do not make a requested Balance Transfer. We reserve the right to make Balance Transfers in the order we select and to limit the amount of the Balance Transfers (which may be less than your total credit limit) that we make to ensure that the Balance Transfer Fee and Balance Transfer amount do not exceed your credit limit. In addition, it is our policy to refuse to accept transfer requests that are incomplete or illegible to us or our affiliates. To protect your billing dispute rights, do not request a Balance Transfer of any amount you might dispute with another creditor. Continue paying your other creditors the amounts owed for each Balance Transfer you request, until you receive a periodic billing statement from those creditors showing that the balances have been paid in full. You are liable for any late payments, finance charges or disputed amounts on your other accounts. If you want your other accounts closed, you are responsible for doing so. Balance Transfers are not eligible for any reward benefits.

Credit Report: By applying for this Account, you agree that we may obtain credit reports for the purpose of processing your application and for later purposes related to your Account, such as reviewing, updating and renewing it; increasing the Credit Limit; and collecting. At your request, you will be informed of whether or not a credit report was requested and the name and address of the consumer reporting agency that furnished the report. You also authorize us to verify your employment, income and other relevant information.

Ohio Residents: The Ohio laws against discrimination require that all creditors make credit equally available to all creditworthy customers and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio Civil Rights Commission administers compliance with this law.

Notice to Married Wisconsin Applicants: No provision of any marital property agreement, unilateral statement or court decree adversely affects our interest and/or rights unless, prior to the time the credit is granted or an open-end credit plan is entered into, we are furnished with a copy of the agreement or statement or decree or have actual knowledge of the adverse provision. Married Wisconsin residents applying for credit separately must furnish name, Social Security number and address of their spouse to us at Cardholder Services, P.O. Box 621809, Orlando, FL 32862-1809.

California Residents: The applicant, if married, may apply for a separate Account. After credit approval, each applicant shall have the right to use this Account to the extent of any credit limit set by the creditor, and each applicant may be liable for all amounts of credit extended under this Account to each joint applicant.
